

LIEVEN DE BOECK

Mikado LDB Modulator

Lieven DE BOECK shows his masterly sculptural work Mikado LDB Modulator in the wunderkammer. This technical tour de force consists of glass elements referring to the game of Mikado, with measures and colours related to the length of the artist himself as well as to the Anglo-Saxon metric system.

Lieven De Boeck (°1971 Dendermonde, Belgium) participated in many solo and group exhibitions. Solo exhibitions of his work have taken place at Witte de With, Rotterdam (2004), Extra City Kunsthall, Antwerp (2009) or Kunstraum Munich (2010). He participated in group exhibitions such as Translation Paradoxes and Misunderstandings in Shedhalle Zurich and Soft Sites at ICA, Institute of Contemporary Art in Philadelphia. Lieven De Boeck lives and works between Brussels and New York.

Mikado LDB Modulator (detail), 2013, coloured glass, ca 150 x 150 x 150 cm